A Boeing 767 out of Boston made an emergency landing Tuesday at Cleveland Hopkins International Airport due to concerns that it may have a bomb aboard, said Mayor Michael R. White.

United identified the plane as Flight 93. The airline didn't say how many people were aboard the flight.

If flight 93 crashed in Shanksville at 10:00 am ET...then how could flight 93 also have landed at the Cleveland Hopkins International Airport...been evacuated and searched for a bomb as was reported at 11:43 am ET ?

If all the passengers where evacuated...where are they?

WHICH FLIGHT WAS THE REAL FLIGHT 93 ?
